

Position: Safety specialist engineer

Job summary

Michelin is searching for safety specialist who is responsible for support the site's commitment in safety domain, implement the safety regulations and michelin's group orientation. This position requires active involvement with shop floor activities and all levels of personnel

Responsibilities

- Be responsible for safety activity of the company in order to comply with safety law and regulations by doing periodical audit, recommendation for improvement, planning and evaluation the related operation processes and activities.
- Assess, or lead the assessment, of safety risks at the work post level.
- Prepare and take part in internal and external audits in the field of safety.
- Analyze incidents and accidents in the area of responsibility, assure corrective action plans are established and carried out.
- Develop the necessary control and emergency plans.
- Develop staff awareness and training programs.

Qualifications

- Female & Male
- Graduated Bachelor's Degree in Occupational health and Safety
- Special knowledge: Professional Level of Safety Officer is required.
- Experiences: 0-3 years in productivity improvement
- Willingness to work in a manufacturing environment.
- Good command in Thai and English both speaking and writing

Benefit :

- 5 Working Days (Mon-Fri)
- Health insurance
- Group accident insurance
- Fixed Bonus
- Performance Bonus
- Uniform

Work location : Saraburi, Chonburi

Apply : send CV to : ranron.sukhum@michelin.com