

Project Manager / Technical Sales

Company's Description

Bo Renovation is a modeling and renovation company, Bo Renovation Team has operated in Bangkok since 4 years and in Europe for 10 years. Our experience and Building knowledge allows us to handle any renovation project large or small efficiently. We provide professional and affordable service for both the residential and commercial sector.

Our Thai staffs is well train and manage by our European manager, quality is our priority.

Job Description

- Male age 20-50 years, Good command of English
- Bachelor's degree in any related field
- Requires 3 years of experience in construction
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, organizational and time-management skills.
- Maintain and expand the relationships with customers through face-to-face contact.
- Implement sales strategies to attain sales volume and profit objectives
- Acquire a thorough understanding of key customer needs and requirements
- Provide project cost estimate to the clients as well as information on the products
- Control and report the project cost
- Report work progress to the management team
- Provides leadership by directing project teams
- Have fundamental knowledge in general construction