

Software Developer - Business Applications - Yangon, Myanmar

Business Division based in Yangon

We are starting the recruitment of our team to handle software development in Myanmar to serve our customers both locally and in Thailand. Solutions will be hosted in our DataCenter in Yangon and maintained and secured by our IT team located in Bangkok. Current development is on our ERP, tailoring and building web applications, and will evolve to include building Mobile applications as well as backend systems.

Position Title

- Software / Application Developer Requirement
- Programming Language: Python, JavaScript
- Good understanding of server-side and front-end technologies (JavaScript, HTML5, ...)
- Database (PostgreSQL, MySQL)
- Understanding of code versioning tools (preferably Git)

Qualification

- University Degree in Computer Science, or in IT related field
- Preferably 1-year experience
- Good English, written and verbal communication skills
- Self-motivated, teamwork and willing to learn
- Would be a plus to know about ERP and the solution

Responsibilities

- Project Management- Product development
- Supporting and maintaining software applications
- Region Myanmar

Benefits

- Be part of an energetic team that is positive and happy to work together.
- Great career path opportunities!
- Learn how to interface with the multinational sector

Apply with your CV and a short introduction about your motivation for this position together with your salary expectations. <https://www.safecom.com.th/jobs/detail/software-developer-business-applications-12>