SAFECOMS NETWORK SECURITY CONSULTING

Business Activity

• Outsourcing of IT services, intervention and management of IT Team
• Implementation of ERP systems with Thai accounting, CRM, Marketing, Manufacturing, Inventory, HR etc.

Company Profile

SafeComs is a BOI company, created in Australia in 1999, with offices in Thailand and Myanmar.
The focus of the company is IT security, Procurement, Outsourcing of IT functions, including IT management.

In 2008 SafeComs expanded in the ERP business with its own CRM, Peppercan and is today a silver partner of Odoo, an ERP of Belgian origin, with over 3 million users worldwide.

Yangon is our Software Development Center and features a team of support Engineers.

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER JUNIOR (PYTHON)

JOB DESCRIPTION

Our organisation is multi culture envelopment, with a strong team atmosphere and we are looking for a good and motivated software developer prepared to learn new languages and work in a team.

Your responsibility could involve analysing business operation to design the solution for the customer, programming application with other developers and learning a new computer language. This is a very exciting opportunity for a young developer who wants to progress very fast. So if you have experience in a customer facing role, passion for programming, keyboard skills and above all a flexible and positive approach – join our growing team

Qualifications:

• Bachelor or Master degree in computer science/engineering
• 1-3 years application development experience
• Ability to anticipate and solve problems independently;
• Good communication skill
• Experience in Python, Database designing, Java script and SQL knowledge required;
• ERP knowledge is a plus;
• Thai Nationality
• English required.

Please send your resume to jobs@safecoms.com